Rates and Taxes policy review 2014/2015

The City of Johannesburg reviews its Rates Policy annually with the purpose to determine categories of properties, which will then be rated according to a tariff.

Ratepayers and interested parties are invited and are encouraged to get involved in the drafting of the 2014/2015 Rates Policy. From 23 January – 20 February, the City will host public meetings to collect suggestions and recommendations before drafting of the Rates Policy before implementation. This is in terms of the Municipal Property Rates Act 6 of 2004.

Don't miss this opportunity. We look forward to your valued input and sincerely do hope you will attend.

Due date for comments, submission and inputs is 25 February 2014. To view the current rates policy visit www.joburg.org.za. Written comments can be:
